~~A Note on the Changing Seasons~~

“2019 Flower Arrangements Exhibition” hosted by Chinese Florist Art Foundation was held from March 10th-17th at Chung-Shan Hall, Taipei.

The subject for this year is A Note on the Changing Seasons, focusing on the representation of seasons’ characteristics and examining the most interesting things of life for everyday in a year.

In the afternoon of March 15th, 20 some members of the Art & Culture Interest Group visited the exhibition. They discovered with joy so many rooms completely decorated with magnificent flower creations which were designed by 200 artists.

Not only they took a look at flowers, they also attended a demonstration class, and learnt some basic skills of flower arrangement.

This tour was ended after enjoying coffee, tea and Russian dessert at Astoria Café.
